

New Summit School Welcomes New Headmaster

New Summit School is very pleased to announce Kyle Nobles has joined the staff at the Jackson location as Headmaster for the k-12 grades. Mr. Nobles comes to NSS with an extensive history in education that uniquely qualifies him for his new role. We are excited Mr. Nobles will lead the school forward as we continue to provide the best quality educational opportunities for our students.

Mr. Nobles has served students as a teacher-coach, assistant principal, and principal in a plethora of Mississippi and Alabama school districts over the past thirty-one years. He recently retired from Richton School District where he served as the Superintendent.

Mr. Nobles a native of Hattiesburg attended Jones Junior College, The University of Southern Mississippi, William Carey University, and Mississippi State University. His matriculation includes a Bachelor of Science and Master of Educational Leadership.

He is married to Karlee Neel of Lumberton. They have five children Clay Nobles and his wife Mallory, Andrew Nobles, Allee Grace Johnston, and Logan Johnston.

Mr. Nobles plans to work with staff, students, parents, and community members as New Summit School prepares students to be college and career ready in the unique environment provided by NSS. He is looking forward to working with the administrative staff already in place to further the mission of New Summit School.

Once again, welcome to Kyle Nobles, Headmaster, New Summit School.
